WWII veteran's widow sees recognition on Memorial Day

On Memorial Day, we celebrated the victory of a LSSP client, the widow of a WWII veteran, who was recently awarded the recognition that her husband's sacrifice had honorably earned. Read how Mrs. Adams* and a LSSP attorney discovered that her husband's service in Japan immediately following the detonation of the atomic bombs put him at risk for the cancer that took his life.

LSSP attorney participates in advocacy event for persons with HIV/AIDS in the Charlotte area

LSSP attorney Soree Finley traveled to Raleigh recently to meet with representatives and senators in the N.C. General Assembly to advocate for the needs and rights of people living with HIV/AIDS in the Charlotte area. LSSP's efforts were part of the annual N.C. AIDS Advocacy Day coordinated by North Carolina AIDS Action

Network in partnership with local nonprofits Regional AIDS Interfaith Network and Carolinas CARE Partnership. The group spoke with lawmakers about keeping the critical AIDS Drug Assistance Program fully funded and voting against recurring funding cuts that would be harmful to people living with HIV/AIDS across the state. In the photo, Finley (standing second from the left) is pictured with N.C. Representative Charles Jeter with several other advocates from partner agencies.

CLE on aiding immigrant children held at NCBA

LSSP attorney Mark Bowers recently presented alongside speakers from United States Citizenship and Immigration Services, Forsythe Immigration Law Firm, and The Law Office of Derrick J. Hensley in a North Carolina Bar Association-hosted CLE on pursuing relief for unaccompanied immigrant children. The CLE covered how private attorneys can help children through LSSP's Safe Child Immigrant Project by donating pro bono service to ensure due process for the children. Learn how you can become involved.
